Inauguration

of the Collection of the Washington Medals. &c collected by Hon James Ross Snowden Director of the Mint.

To-day, being the anniversary of the birth of the illustrious Washington, the Medals &c on which this head or name appears, collected by the Director of the Mint, Hon James Ross Snowden, were formaly and with appropriate ceremonies, assigned a position in the Mint Cabinet. The Officers & Employees of the Mint were present. After a prayer by the Rev Mr Donnelly of Mass. who accidentally happened to be present, the Farewell Address of Washington, was read by the Director, who made some very interesting comments thereon. Remarks pertinent to the occasion were also made by Prof J. C Booth. J. B. Longacre Esq & Dr H. R. Linderman.
